

Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kentucky

The Enlisted Association of the National Guard of Kentucky (EANGKY) is a professional organization that represents the nearly 7,500 Kentuckians who proudly serve their state and nation in the Kentucky Air and Army National Guard and all retirees and separated members of the Kentucky National Guard. EANGKY is an affiliate with the Enlisted Association of the National Guard of the United States (EANGUS). Together we have forged an organization to work together with senior leadership of the Guard, public officials at all levels and industry to pursue mutual goals. EANGKY has the contacts and the credentials to be effective at the national and state levels. EANGKY members serve as leaders on many national taskforces and committees. Because the Kentucky Air and Army National Guard have such varied and important missions and weapons systems, we have input across the spectrum of defense and reserve policy issues. Each year, at its annual conference, EANGKY considers scores of resolutions to address issues of national and state importance. These resolutions shape the legislative priorities for EANGKY for the year ahead. Many resolutions considered at our annual conference have been enacted as federal and state laws. Resolutions addressing national issues go forward to EANGUS for consideration at their annual national convention. EANGKY sponsors an annual briefing for the Kentucky Congressional Delegation in Washington.
